

ORDERS EXTENDED TO NON-ESSENTIALS

Number of Local Industries Using Electricity for Power Affected by Restriction.

MEETING SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Representatives of Railroad Administration, Utility Manager and Mayor Will Confer.

Ed Massman, agent for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and J. T. Jones, agent for the Pennsylvania Lines, representatives of the federal railroad administration in this city, received orders this afternoon to the effect that the curtailment of electricity for power must be extended immediately to non-essential industries. As soon as they received the telegram they called I. L. Frost, manager of the public service company, and Mayor Burkart into conference to discuss the new development. Such an order was not anticipated at this time and unless modified will strike hard at the industrial plants in this city.

The telegram is quite lengthy, but in substance states that the coal shortage throughout the country has reached the point of seriousness where further restrictive orders are necessary. Stores and business houses are now open only during daylight hours, and the telegram states that the time has come when further curtailment of the use of coal must be made.

Realizing the seriousness of the order as it affects some ten or twelve industries which depend upon electric power exclusively, the railroad administration representatives and the mayor were reluctant to take snap judgment and decided to hold a conference Sunday afternoon with Mr. Frost, the president and directors of the Seymour Chamber of Commerce and the officers of the Rotary Club. A course of action to be followed during the emergency will be outlined at that meeting.

At the conference tomorrow, Mayor Burkart stated this afternoon, a complete list of the industries in Seymour which use electric power will be compiled and the so-called "non-essentials" will be designated. According to the first interpretation of the order many concerns will be included in the class of nonessentials but a stricter interpretation of the message may prove to be less drastic. It is upon this point that the authorities decide further consultation.

FEW NEW CASES FILED

December Term of Circuit Court Will Convene December 15.

Only a few new cases have been filed in circuit court since the close of the October term three weeks ago and Willard Stout, county clerk, predicts an unusually light docket for the December term which convenes Monday, December 15, unless an unusually large number are filed during the next week. Several cases were continued from the October term that will come to trial at the December term of court.

MAYOR RECEIVES FEW COMPLAINTS

Several Dealers Alleged to be Violating Electric Light Conservation Agreement.

ILLUMINATION IN WINDOWS

City Executive Call Attention to Necessity of 100 Per Cent. Cooperation in Movement.

While practically all the merchants have complied strictly with the coal conservation rules which were approved at a public meeting a week ago, several complaints have been made to C. W. Burkart, the mayor, that a few dealers for some reason are failing to cooperate, especially in the matter of display window lights and early closing. Mayor Burkart stated today that in his opinion the dealers who have failed to comply with the regulations do not thoroughly understand them and it is not their desire to take advantage of other merchants who are keeping their display windows dark. "I can see no reason why any merchant would desire to wilfully violate this agreement which was entered into by all the merchants," said Mayor Burkart. It was made clear to the public meeting a week ago that only by cooperative methods could a material saving be made in the use of coal at the plant of the Seymour Public Service Company. The public realizes the seriousness of the coal shortage and should any merchant try to take advantage of the others in illuminating his display windows when those of his fellow merchants are dark he would certainly suffer in the way of public condemnation. I am inclined to believe that the eight or ten dealers whose names have been mentioned in the complaints which have come to me do not fully understand the agreement which was reached among the

HEAVY SNOW FALLS EARLY TODAY BUT MELTS RAPIDLY

Ground is Covered For Short Time But Soon Disappears With Arrival of Rain.

The ground was white with snow about midnight last night, for the first time this year but the blanket of white did not remain long as a rising temperature brought a shower of rain. About an inch of snow was recorded for a short time. The rain, however, soon melted the snow and only traces of it were found this morning.

The snow and the cold rain are taken as indications of the approach of winter weather. Colder weather is predicted by the weather bureau with rain in the south portion tonight.

STATE TAX BOARD WINS A DECISION

Judge Luke Wrigley of Noble-Whitley Circuit Court Rules in Favor of Horizontal Increase.

HOLDS BOARD HAS AUTHORITY

Case of Especial Interest Here in View of Action to be Filed by Chamber of Commerce.

In view of the case which is to be filed in the Jackson circuit court by the Seymour Chamber of Commerce to question the authority of the state tax board to make a horizontal increase in the assessment of personal property in this city, considerable interest is centered in the ruling of Judge Luke Wrigley of the Noble-Whitley circuit court to the effect that the tax board of Indiana is vested with this authority. This is the first case of the several filed to be decided in favor of the state board. A number of other circuit judges have ruled in favor of the taxpayers.

The details of the case decided in the Noble-Whitley circuit court have not been received here and it is likely that the issues are somewhat different. U. S. Lesh, assistant attorney general, represented the state tax board in the case. Whether or not an appeal will be taken by the taxpayers has not been definitely determined.

Mr. Lesh reported to the office of the attorney general that Judge Wrigley sustained the demurrer to

UNUSUAL NOTICE BEING PREPARED

City Will Advise for Bids for The Construction of A Water Works Plant in Seymour.

REQUIREMENT OF THE LAW

Formal Procedure Held Necessary Before Contract With Company Can Be Completed.

John M. Lewis, city attorney, is preparing a legal notice, to be published soon, which will state in substance that the city of Seymour is ready to receive bids for the construction of a water works plant in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the city engineer. A casual reading of the notice might lead to the erroneous impression that the city authorities are contemplating the installation of another water works system here. It is explained, however, that the notice is to be published merely to comply with the requirements of the Indiana law so that a rate contract can be made with the Seymour Water Company to take the place of the schedule which will expire December 31, this year.

The law provides, so the council has been informed, that ten days notice must be given before a legal contract can be entered into between the city and the water company. The notice, it is understood, will be practically the same as if the water company was not in existence now.

An unusual feature in connection with the notice is that if any individuals should take the notice at face value and submit a proposal for the construction of a water works system here, the council would not be in a position to consider it. One of the rules of the public service commission which is applicable to the

PROBE WILL COVER EXTENDED PERIOD

Federal Grand Jury to Investigate Coal Strike May Be in Session Four Months.

WILL BE CALLED MONDAY

Department of Justice Will Back Prosecution, District Attorney Slack States.

By United Press

Indianapolis, December 6—Ratification of the federal grand jury in its probe of activities of coal mine operators and their employees will cover the entire country and will extend throughout the period of the war.

District Attorney Slack today asserted the grand jury may sit in session four months, perhaps more than a year, inasmuch as its probe will be so extensive. All the evidence of the department of justice will be laid before it, Will Penna, secretary of the Indiana Operators' Association, has offered complete cooperation.

The grand jury will inspect minutes of meetings of operators and the unions.

"The department of justice will back us with all its power," Slack said today. "Washington has been fully advised of every step we have taken and we continue giving them reports. All activities of the department will at the disposal of the grand jury and attorneys prosecuting the case at this end of the line have been assured ever assistance.

Slack refused to estimate the number of witnesses to be subpoenaed before the grand jury. It is known, however, that many minors and mine operators will be among the first witnesses.

THINK WEEK WILL SEE END OF STRIKE

Officials of Operators' Association Confident of Settlement in Few Days.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE SECRET

Comments on Rumors of An Early Adjustment of Controversy Are Refused.

Bulletin

By United Press

Indianapolis, December 6—Reports were circulated here today that John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, left hurriedly for Washington late last night "to end the strike." These reports were not denied at miners' headquarters. Lewis could not be located in Indianapolis and William Green, secretary-treasurer of the organization, has not been at his office all morning.

By United Press

Chicago, December 6—Confidence that the coal strike will end before next Saturday was expressed here today by men in close touch with the big operators of the central competitive field. Negotiations between miners and operators, if any are being conducted, are strictly secret. Operators and officials of the Operators' Association here, refused today to comment on rumors that an attempt had been made to feel out the miners.

"Although I decline to be quoted on this subject," one operators' official said, I would be willing to wager that the strike will be over within a week. The situation at present is so bad that none of us dares to tell the truth about it for publication."

This same official stated he had been in touch today with mine owners in five different states of the middle west.

STRIP MINE OPERATORS CONFER WITH GOVERNOR

Say Miners Want to Return if Union Heads Will Issue Official Order.

By United Press

Indianapolis, December 6—That the miners desire to return to work at a fourteen percent. increase and that they are remaining only because union heads have not ordered them officially to return were the statements made by strip mine operators in a conference with Governor Goodrich today. The operators have spent several days in conferring with their men and they reported to the governor that the order calling off the strike after Judge Anderson ordered the strike suspended was not looked up by the men as bona fide. Operators said their men had told them that there was an understanding that they should disregard any order not bearing the seal of the union and the signature of union officials. The order calling off the strike was simply a mimeograph copy, it was announced. Nothing further regarding the opening of the strip mines was accomplished at the conference, the governor announced. The governor has decided not to call a joint conference of miners and operators at this time. It was indicated, however, that something may be done about opening strip mines the middle of next week.

A decision to open all retail stores at 10 o'clock a. m. and close them at 5 p. m. beginning next week, was reached by the fuel conservation committee, following a meeting of business men at the chamber of commerce. This will apply to every day with the exception of Saturday when the stores will remain open until 6 o'clock. The closing rule for factories and the four day a week plan for factories were continued.

The fuel committee was authorized at the meeting to confer with the public service committee in an effort to secure from the commission an order to the light companies compelling them to shut off current supplied to stores and factories which do not follow the coal conservation program. The committee decided to wait until next week to confer with the commission, anticipating similar definite orders from Washington.

WAR TORN BELGIUM FINDS RECONSTRUCTION BIG TASK

Armies of Men Work a Year But Make Little Headway in Reclamation Work.

By United Press

Ypres, Belgium, December 6.—Although small armies of men, mostly German prisoners, have been working nearly a year, devastated Belgium looks today just as barren and war-torn as when the armistice sent the German armies hurrying back into the distances from which they had come.

So immense is the reclamation task before them, it is not noticeable that the workers have made any impression at all.

Ypres itself, a collection of ruins, has hardly been touched. The debris has been swept from the streets, and a lean-to station put up near the site of the old. A few restaurants have been re-opened for tourists and relatives of fallen soldiers visiting the zone.

A small gauntlet of postal-card sellers and curio vendors forms regularly outside the station a few minutes before train time. Several liverymen and garage owners do a fine business driving sight-seers over the battlefields.

Bpt minus these Ypres is today as she was in 1918.

To the east, south and north stretches an ugly, shell-chopped lifeless terrain, where gangs of "body snatchers" (the Tommy's name for grave hunters) are still wandering. Now and then, in some out-of-the-way, grass-stuffed crater they still find a weather-soaked uniform, gray or khaki, with a human skeleton inside it. They gather the bones together in a sack and carry them back to headquarters.

Or, they find a forgotten grave, probably marked by a little rain-blackened wooden cross. The battle area is dotted with these crosses—the only epitaph on some being a rusty trench helmet. The "body snatchers" job is to dig up the bodies, put them in sacks, too, and bring Wrecked tanks, wagons, trucks, ammunition dumps, pill-boxes are scattered up to the horizon. Four miles down the Menin road from Ypres 28 British tanks lie in one field, called the "Tank Cemetery."

Of many smaller villages not even the ruins remain, the walls having

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

SCHORTEMEIER CHOSEN TO SUCCEED L. W. HENLEY

Secretary to Senator New Becomes Secretary of Indiana Republican Committee.

December 6—Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary to Senator New, was named yesterday by E. M. Wasmuth, Republican state chairman, as secretary of the Indiana state committee. Mr. Schortemeier will succeed L. W. Henley, who was recently relieved from active duty with the committee in order that he might work with the national organization.

Mr. Schortemeier, who arrived in Indianapolis yesterday, will return to Washington this afternoon and will take up his duties with the state Republican organization Dec. 15.

"I have been asked to accept the secretaryship of the state committee," said Mr. Schortemeier, following the announcement of his appointment. "I feel it is my duty to the party to accept."

MISS PEARL CLARK DIES AT COLUMBUS

Young Woman Victim of Auto Accident in Which Her Father, Mother and Sister Were Killed.

Friends here have been notified of the death of Miss Pearl Clark, which occurred at the Bartholomew county hospital, at Columbus, Friday morning at 6 o'clock. The deceased was twenty years old.

Miss Clark was injured in an automobile accident that which occurred at Noblesville two months ago in which her father William O. Clark, her mother and a sister, Miss Edna Clark, were instantly killed. The accident occurred on a railroad crossing when the Clark machine was run down by a train and completely demolished. Miss Clark suffered a broken hip, a badly injured spine and internal injuries, which caused her death.

The deceased was well known in this city, having visited here several times. The funeral will be held at the Clark home in Columbus Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Interment at Garland Brook cemetery.

MAYOR RECEIVES FEW COMPLAINTS

merchants and I desire at this time to again impress upon them the necessity of conforming to the rules which were laid down."

Several complaints have been made recently that the lights in a few display windows have been used since the agreement among the merchants went into effect. An investigation has been made in several instances and it was found that the dealers were using a single light to illuminate their display window and also the front part of their store and that such lights were used to illuminate their store rather than to light their display window. One or two of the merchants of whom complaint has been made were told that objection had been voiced and quickly arranged to keep their display windows dark.

It is believed that practically all of the complaints which have been filed could be explained in some such manner and that the merchants had not intended to take advantage of others. It is patent that with the public in a high state of anxiety as the result of the coal shortage it would quickly condemn any merchant who sought to take an advantage over the others. The merchants to whom the matter has been mentioned regret that a misunderstanding has resulted and it is not believed that any further trouble will be experienced.

The agreement which was made last Monday will not expire until December 15 and it is hoped that by that time the fuel shortage will be sufficiently relieved that further curtailment of light will not be necessary during the holiday rush. The public commends the merchants for the stand they have taken in this matter and realizes that their co-operation has resulted in continuous although somewhat restricted electric and gas service.

The information which reached here today that some operators thought that the strike would be ended during the coming week was hailed with evident delight. The coal supply here for both industrial and domestic purposes is rapidly diminishing and unless production is resumed soon the pinch of the famine will become serious.

New Note Prepared. By United Press

Paris, December 6.—The supreme council in secret session today unanimously approved the text of the note to be presented to Germany and the provisions for making effective the peace treaty. While the note has not yet been made public, it is understood to be virtually an ultimatum.

The Mines of Christmas Cheer Won't Shut Down at Snyder's

Here at Ben Snyder's the coal saving order of the Regional Committee is accepted in the spirit of the Christmas now close at hand. It will be carried out cheerfully and with a will to further the ends aimed at.

Under this schedule an hour will be cut off your buying time and of our selling time each day during the busiest season of the year. This is equivalent to reducing the fifteen shopping days between now and Christmas to thirteen with a few hours to spare.

Ben Snyder's is thoroughly prepared to help you make the most of every minute that remains. With your cooperation any inconvenience that might be expected in the curtailed shopping period can be reduced to the minimum, and at the same time the objects of the shortened days can be promoted.

UNUSUAL NOTICE BEING PREPARED

present situation is that it will not grant a permit to a second utility company to operate in any city where satisfactory service is rendered by the company already in existence. Thus the council would find itself in the position of advertising for bids when in reality it will have authority, with approval of the commission, to enter into a contract only with the Seymour Water Company.

The members of the council and representatives of the water company held another conference last night relative to the new rate schedule which is being worked out. It is explained that the tentative rates under consideration cannot be announced until the ten days notice required by law has been given and even then the council has no authority to enter into a contract for any schedule until the commission has approved such rates.

A number of conferences have been held in an effort to reach an agreement as to the rates which will be in existence for the next ten years. It is known that the council intends to submit whatever rates are agreed upon to the water committee of the Chamber of Commerce for approval before a formal contract is made. It is understood that rates which have been approved by the commission for privately owned water companies in cities of this size have been used as a basis in the endeavor to effect an agreement.

STATE TAX BOARD WINS A DECISION

the complaint on the ground that the new tax law gave the state board of tax commissioners the power to make the horizontal increases. He said that the judge held that the question of whether the state board exercised the power at the time or in the manner prescribed by law could not be inquired into at a collateral proceeding such as the suit before him.

Mr. Lesh explained that the persons bringing the suit contended that the state board made the increases without first having the assessments certified to the state board. The suit was filed despite the fact that the state board provided for a review of individual assessments for the purpose of making revisions. The suit here is principally to contest the right of the board to make horizontal increases in the assessments of personal property. The contention of the case decided in favor of the state board may have been different and when the details are ascertained it may be found that the two cases are not parallel.

For a Man's Desk

If there is anything a man appreciates more than another it is a waste basket to hold things that he doesn't want or a case to hold things that he does want. Here are both these sensible gifts, made to match, and happy is the man who will receive them at Christmas time.

The waste basket has a foundation of very light board, covered with a dull rose-colored tapestry and finished with dark-green braid. Handles with tassels to match prove convenient. A medallion of figured tapestry bound by braid completes this practical and handsome gift. The case for papers is made to match the basket.

DINNER GUESTS.

Miss Eleanor Ahlbrand entertained the members of the He'Dove Club with a dinner Friday evening at her home on South Chestnut street, in honor of Miss Viola Ahlbrand, whose marriage to Martin Steinwedel will take place in the near future. A three course dinner was served. The dining room was decorated with greenery and flowers. A large basket of flowers formed the table centerpiece. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out. The guests received small baskets filled with candy as favors.

Covers were laid for Miss Helen Brunow, Mrs. Dorothy Plump, Miss Ora Droege, Miss Esther Grelle, Miss Viola Ahlbrand and the hostess.

AMITIE CLUB.

A social meeting of the Amitie Club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Theo. Brunow, South Poplar street. During the afternoon a two course luncheon was served. Miss Ella Dieck was a guest at the meeting.

YOUNG GIRL SHOT FROM MOUTH OF CANNON

Imagine a pretty young girl loaded into a huge forty-two centimetre cannon and actually shot through space, only to appear again in less than one minute's time smiling and unhurt. But such is one of the amazing effects presented by Richards, "The Wizard," who with his stupendous show of wonders will appear at the Majestic Theatre 3-days commencing Monday December 8.

And the act wherein a young lady is shot out of a huge cannon up into the innermost of three trunks locked within each other, hanging in the dome of the theatre over the audience is just one of a hundred other equally sensational mysteries that go to make up the program of Mr. Richards extraordinary performance, which also contains a very pleasing variety of clean comedy, new music, novelties, and splendor. The attraction has but recently completed a most triumphant tour of the largest cities in America and comes here with the entire original production intact, a sixty foot baggage car being required to transport the company's scenery and effects which are said to be the most gorgeous and costly ever displayed by any mystery attraction that has ever toured this country. The entire performance is a dazzling whirl of mysteries, thrills, transformations, and wonderful surprises which should take by storm as it has every other city in America. Mr. Richards has surrounded himself with a very capable company headed by Miss Crystal Williams, who will display a number of very beautiful and novel costumes that should appeal to the very critical eyes of the ladies. wk-s

Hanly To Speak Here.

J. Frank Hanly, of Indianapolis, former governor of Indiana, will speak to a mass meeting of men and women at First Baptist Church on December 14th, at 7:30 p. m.

A lawyer of ability and an advocate of remarkable force and power, he has given up his profession to devote his time and talents to the cause of prohibition and civic betterment.

J. FRANK HANLY.

Mr. Hanly spent some time in France, speaking in a series of meetings with the American Expeditionary Forces there, going under the auspices of the Flying Squadron Foundation and the United Committee on War Temperance Activities in the Army and Navy. He addressed many thousands of the men, and brings back a stirring, vital message. The subject of Mr. Hanly's address will be "America—The Torch Bearer."

Miss Anita Meyers entertained the members of the Alpha Beta club Friday evening at her home on East Fifth street.

A. R. Enos' Bulletin

On November 29th I received a car load of the nationally advertised Purina Feeds, known everywhere by the checkerboard bags.

Contained in this car was the leading dairy feed known as Purina Cow-Chow a 24 percent Protein feed; Fatena the ideal steer fattener; Purina Pig-Chow a hog feed containing tankage in correct proportions; Purina Scratch feed and Purina Chicken-Chowder, the unsurpassed winter egg producing combination; and Purina Molasses Feed, the economical feed for horses.

I also have on hand a full supply of 16 percent Protein Dairy feed; Green Corss Molasses feed; Schumaker, the ideal pig feed; Corn feed meal; ground rye; Bull's Eye; Buckeye Mixed feed and Rydis Calf meal. I also have two car loads of the well known "King Midas" and "Ariston's Special" flour, which are still priced at attractive prices.

Call and look over this the largest assortment of guaranteed feeds in Southern Indiana, and get my prices.

I am in the market at all times for all farm products at highest market prices, and will give the farmers a Square Deal at all times.

Dust Is Very Dangerous.

All kinds of dust form dangers to human beings. Not only does dust exercise a direct harmful influence on the tissues of the organism, but it is the chief transporting agent of germs of infection and contagion.

Dust is composed of infinitesimal particles of street mud and of refuse of every description which lies on the surface of the soil.

Bacteriologists say that these particles, when dry, are disseminated in the atmosphere, together with all the impurities and microbes which they may contain, and to which they serve as transporting agents.

Household Finery

A dark-brown willow basket lined with silk and decked out with ribbons and ribbon roses in two colors cannot fail to please its recipient at Christmas time, be she young or old. It is a luxurious bit of furnishing that can be used for many things.

A tray or server, like that shown in the picture, is made of silk tapestry gold lace and glass, over any suitable foundation. Trays of this kind in sizes that correspond to a dinner plate or smaller look very much at home on a dressing table among other pretty luxuries.

scores was marked up at the close of the first half and several times during that period the scores were even. The superior game put up by the Seymour players was a surprise to the spectators who had expected that Hopewell, one of the strongest high school quintets in the state, would pile up a big, one-sided score.

The Seymour high school players were generally commended here for their sportsmanlike methods of playing and their conduct while in the city. The conduct of the team showed excellent training and the players received much praise during their stay in this city. The Seymour team went to Waynetown today for another hard game tonight.

The Seymour players handled the ball in a splendid manner and basketball "fans" here predict that the quintet is one to be reckoned with in considering the state honors this season. The Hopewell team played an unusually strong game and fought hard for every point it won.

The line up for the Seymour team follows: Keach, (Capt.) and Deal, forwards; Niehaus, center; Lewis and Steinwedel, guards.

Hopewell lineup—Dunn and Robards, forwards; Plummer, center; Selch and Demaree, guards.

Field goals—Seymour; Keach 5; Deal, 4; Niehaus, 2. Hopewell Plummer, 6; Dunn, 5; Robards, 2; Demaree, 1.

Foul goals—Seymour; Niehaus, 6; Plummer, 3.

Referee—Vandiver, Franklin.

The Value of Prayer

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE
Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Time spent in prayer seems to some to be wasted. They are unaware that time so spent pays the highest dividends.

First, prayer brings deliverance from danger. When Peter was sinking beneath the sea he cried, "Lord, save me," and immediately he was rescued. When Jonah came to himself in the belly of the great fish he certainly was in danger, but he prayed and came forth from that prison-house which to human reason was his tomb. The promise is found in Psa. 50:15, "Call upon me in the day of trouble and I will deliver you."

Second, prayer gives protection from temptation. When the people under Joshua made the mistake of accepting the Gibeonites, it was because they "asked not counsel at the mouth of the Lord." Josh. 9:14. What appeared the reasonable thing to do was like a snare cleverly disguised and unseen to sight. But no disguise or hiding could veil the sight of the Lord. Inquiry of Him would have given them to see the unseen and protected them from this temptation. Little wonder we are told to "watch and pray lest ye enter into temptation." Luke 22:40.

Third, prayer brings wisdom in perplexity. How often perplexing problems arise which must be solved and how often the solution we come to proves to be wrong. We frequently come to where decisions on important matters must be made quickly. Of what untold value then it is to have divine wisdom. When Nehemiah found himself in such case the unrecorded prayer went up and wisdom came to him as he says in Neh. 2:4, "I prayed to the God of Heaven and said to the king" the right word. It is still true that "If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth to all—and it shall be given him." Jas. 1:5.

Fourth, prayer brings provision for every need. Luke 11:9, 10 reads, "Ask and ye shall receive—for every one that asketh receiveth." We know from experience how this promise is overlooked and we get into the state of perturbation described in Jas. 4:2, "Ye lust and have not; ye envy and desire to have, and cannot obtain; ye fight and war, yet ye have not." The passage goes on to declare that the reason we "have not" is "because we ask not." How much futile struggling and fighting would be saved us if we would believe Christ's promise and ask, "Ask and ye shall receive."

Fifth, prayer brings revelations of hidden things as the marginal reading of Jer. 33:3 points out: "Call upon me and I will answer thee, and show thee great and hidden things which thou knowest not." Many who are confused by the book of Daniel would find confusion giving place to order if they but studied it on their knees. Daniel himself is an illustration of this, for he declares, "I prayed unto the Lord my God, and whilst I was speaking and praying, yea whilst I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel said, 'Oh Daniel, I am now come to give thee understanding.'" Dan. 9:4, 20, 21. It was while Daniel was in prayer that the deep and hidden things were made known to him.

Sixth, prayer enables us to help others. When Peter was locked up in the prison there was little that his friends could do for him except pray for him. But they could pray and did pray as recorded in Acts 12:5, "prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him." The consequence was that what they could not do personally, they did do by way of the throne from whence an angel came and brought Peter forth to them. Paul knew of the help in prayer when he wrote in I Thess. 5:25, "pray for us." The exhortation of Jas. 5:16 is, "Pray for one another."

Finally, prayer brings peace in all circumstances. Daniel seems to have found this so when the lions' den was opening to receive him. He went to that den with a quiet confidence and deep peace of heart and mind which was wholly lacking in the king whose law was sending him there. The secret is found in Dan. 6:10: "Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house and kneeled upon his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God as he did aforetime." This is a striking fulfillment of the promise found in Phil. 4:6, 7: "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made known unto God, and the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

He grasped at her arm, but she stepped back quickly enough to avoid contact, and the red lips were pressed together in a thin line of determination. Her hand had suddenly disappeared within the folds of her skirt; but the angry man, apparently blinded by the violence of his passion, his eagerness to crush her spirit, thought only that she counted on outside aid for deliverance.

"You silly little fool," he snapped, his mustache bristling. "Why, what could you do to stop me? I could break your neck with one hand. So you imagine someone is going to save you. Well, who will it be? Those yokels down at the Landing? Haines the lawyer? You have a surprise up your sleeve for me, I suppose! H—! it makes me laugh; but you might as well have your lesson now as any other time. Come here, you wench!"

He caught her arm this time, brutally jerking her toward him, but as instantly staggered backward, grasping at the table, the flash of anger in his eyes changing to a look of startled surprise. A pistol was leveled full in his face, the polished black barrel shining ominously in the light of the overhead lamp.

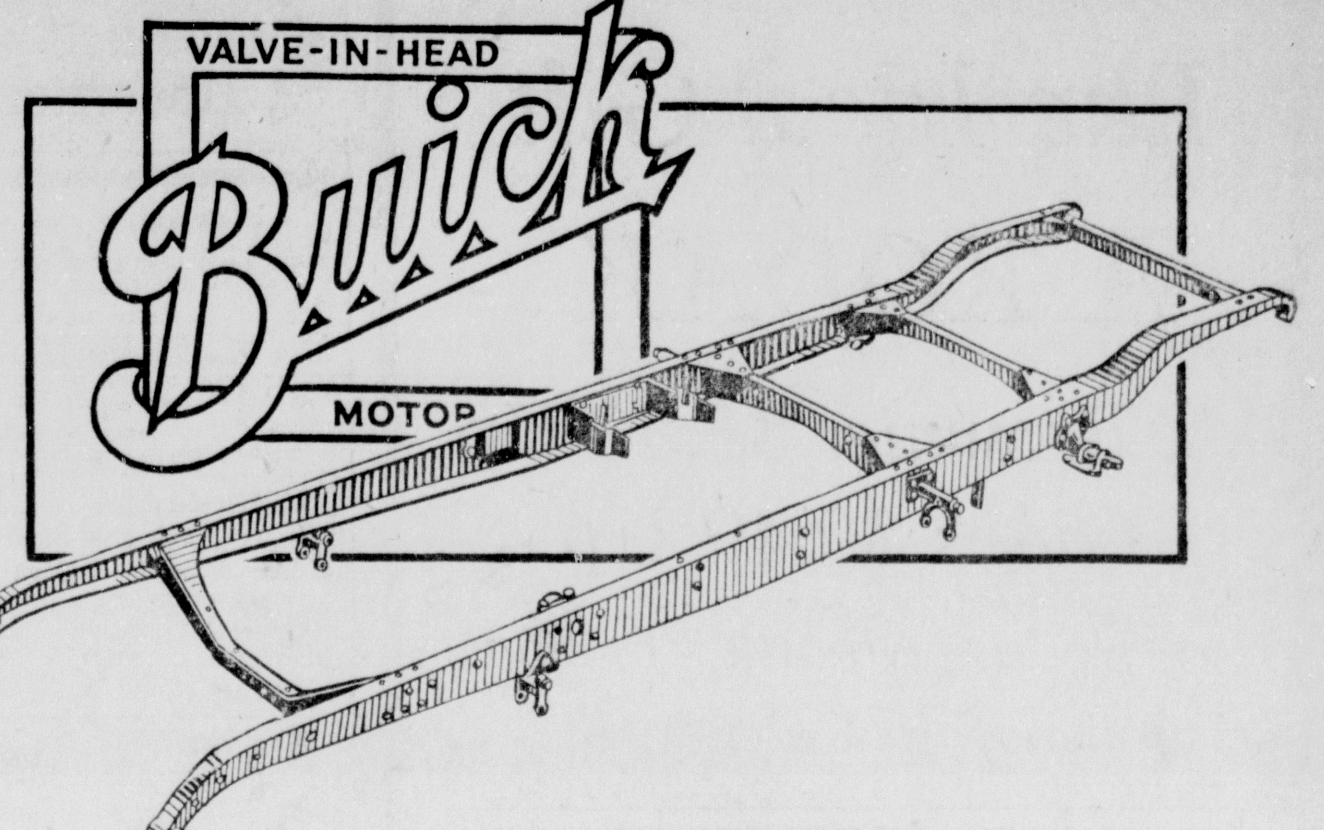

"Now perhaps you know what I mean," she said. "If you dare to touch me I will kill you like a dog. That is no threat; it is true as God's gospel," and the very tone of her voice carried conviction. "You may say I am a slave—your slave! That may be so, but you will never possess me—never! Life means nothing to me any more, and I never expect to go out of this house alive; I do not even care to. So I am not afraid of you. Do not drop your arms, you low-lived cur, for you have never been nearer death in all your miserable life than you are now. God knows I want to kill you; it is the one desire of my heart at this moment to rid the earth of such a beast. But I'll give you one chance—just one. Don't you dare call out or answer me. Do what I say. Now step back—back along the table; that's it, a step at a time. Oh, I knew you were a cowardly bully. Go on—yes, clear to that window; don't lower those hands an inch until I say you may. I am a slave—yes, but I am also a Beaucarne. Now reach behind you and pull up the sash—pull it up higher than that."

Her eyes dilated with sudden astonishment and terror. She had caught sight of me, emerging from the black shadow just behind her victim. Kirby also perceived the quick change in the face fronting him, read its expression of fright, and sought to twist his head so as to learn the truth. Yet before he could accomplish this or his lips could give utterance to a sound, my hands closed on his throat, crushing him down to the sill, and throttling him into silence between the vise of my fingers.

It proved to be a short, sharp struggle, from the first the advantage altogether with me. With all the old-time dislike in my heart, all the hatred aroused by what I had overheard, I closed down on his throat, rejoicing to see the purple of his flesh turn into a sickening black, as he fought desperately for breath and as he lost consciousness and ceased from struggle. I was conscious of a pang in my wounded shoulder, yet it seemed to rob me of no strength but only added to my ferocity. The fellow rested limp in my hands. I believed I had killed him, and the belief was a joy as I tossed his helpless body aside on the floor and stepped through the open window into the room.

In my heart I hoped he was dead, and in a sudden feeling of utter contempt I struck the inert body with my foot. Then, as my eyes lifted, they encountered those of the girl. She had drawn back to the table, startled out of all reserve by this sudden ap-partition, unable to comprehend. The pistol yet remained clasped in her hand, while she stared at me as though a ghost confronted her.

"Who—who are you?" she managed to gasp in a voice which barely reached my ears. "My God! who—who sent you here?"

"It must have been God," I answered, realizing instantly that I needed to make all clear in a word. "I came only to help you and was just in time—no doubt God sent me."

"To help me? You came here to help me? But how could that be? I—I never saw you before—who are you?"

I stood straight before her, my eyes meeting her own frankly. I had forgotten the dead body at my feet, the incidents of struggle, the pain of my own wound, comprehending only the supreme importance of compelling her to grasp the truth.

"There is no time now to explain all this, Miss Rene. You must accept the bare facts—will you?"

"Yes—I—I suppose I must."

"Then listen, for you must know that every moment we waste here in talk only makes escape more difficult. Tell you the simple truth. I am Steve Knox, an officer in the army. It chanced I was a passenger on the boat when Judge Beaucarne lost his life. I witnessed the game of cards this man won, and afterward, when I protested, was attacked and flung overboard into the river by Kirby here and that fellow who is outside guarding the door. They believe me to be dead; but I managed to reach shore and was taken care of by a negro—'Free Pete' he calls himself; do you know him?"

"Yes—oh, yes; he was one of the Carlton slaves." Her face brightened slightly in its bewilderment.

Something New in Bags

A basket crocheted of twine and dipped in shellac, is allowed to dry after being shaped to suit the fancy of its maker. It is then adorned with odd yarn flowers, as shown in the picture above, and converted into a pretty bag by lining it with silk and extending the silk above the top of the basket. The silk gathers up at the top on a ribbon. If one cares to present a friend with the ultimate in luxurious laundry bags, this affair will answer for it will grace any dressing room and serve to catch soiled handkerchiefs and neckwear.

MARY PICKFORD IN "THE HOODLUM" AT PRINCESS

Performance Will Be Given Under The Auspices of The Shields High School.

Those who were unable to see Mary Pickford in "The Hoodlum" which appeared at the Princess in October will be glad to know that the production is to be shown at the same theatre again next Monday at reduced prices. The performance will be given for the benefit of the Shields high school Patriot fund and tickets will be sold by the students. "The Hoodlum" is one of Mary Pickford's best productions and was recently shown in this city to crowded houses at 25 and 35 cents. The price for the production Monday will be 10 and 20 cents.

Muslin Signs, "NO HUNTING NOR TRESPASSING" for posting your farm, 10c each, 90c per dozen, at Republican Office.

We Do "Printing That Pleases."

Christmas Slippers

The Christmas tree would seem incomplete if it bore no slippers. Above is a group of this year's offerings. At the top is a gay little pair of ribbon slippers for the young girl. In the center there are eiderdown bedroom slippers for any member of the family, and just below a pair of satin booties for baby, lined with plush or eiderdown and bordered with fur. At the bottom is a pair of handsome bedroom slippers made of ribbon that will delight any woman.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

HOW CAMP TEACHES SCOUTS

How far can the summer camp serve the ambitious scout who wishes to advance in his tests? How can the routine work of the camp be made an interesting matter of service to the camp community?

On the trail of these and many related questions, several hundred camp directors are working. It is clear that the best way to teach camping is to let the boy actually camp. The presence or proximity of an experienced camper will help him to learn the best way more readily, and with less hazard, but the way itself is that of the apprentice rather than the book student. The habit of self-reliance and of common sense can best be developed in a camp where instruction is combined with hours and days that throw the boys on their own resources.

It should be the wish of every boy to become a proficient camper while passing his scout grades and merit badges. The enthusiasm of many boys will lead them to endure lectures and book work to a certain extent, but such enthusiasm feeds upon the chance to do some part of the necessary work of a community as well as it can be done, whether it be for a patrol, a troop, or a council.

MAKING THE RIGHT SIGN.

Boy Scouts Have Signs With Their Fingers. Here Is One Undergoing Test.

SCOUTS HELP TO FIND JOBS.

Another task which Boy Scouts were recently asked by the government to attempt was the distribution of posters relating to the problem of getting jobs for soldiers.

The war department provided national headquarters with a list of forty or more cities in which the situation was so serious as to require special propaganda effort. In every one of these cities there was a first-class scout council and through the scout executive of these local organizations the work was carried out in each community with dispatch and efficiency.

Again Boy Scouts were proud and eager to lend a hand. Evidently there is still plenty of war work to be done, even though the treaty has been signed and peace declared. This is as it should be. Scouting wishes to help Uncle Sam put through some of his numerous big tasks which concern his "boys."

SCOUTING AND CIGARETTES.

John M. Phillips, member of the national scout council and a scout commissioner for Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, has this to say regarding cigarette smoking:

"From personal observation I find that we have very little smoking among our Allegheny county scouts, and while we have not prohibited it we impress upon the scout the fact that to be 'physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight,' he cannot abuse his body by using tobacco in any form. I have stopped a lot of scouts from smoking cigarettes by telling them that if I wanted to stunt a pup I would feed him tobacco juice."

Mr. Phillips is getting splendid results from his "stunted pup."

WHAT THE SCOUTS DO.

The Boy Scouts in South San Francisco have planted a large date palm in the civic center in honor of Theodore Roosevelt.

Three Boy Scouts who were on a hike from New York to Montreal, passing through the Adirondack Mountains between Chesterton and Elizabethtown, N. Y., came across a side-car accident, in which the occupants of the side-car were unconscious. The boys rendered first aid and telephoned to Elizabethtown for medical aid.

CARRYING 150-POUND PACK.

DILLON WALLACE, Explorer of Labrador, Is Scout Commissioner in Dutchess County, New York.

WHAT THE SCOUTS DO.

Boy scouts in Louisville, Ky., are working for a cleaner city. These boys were detailed to distribute 50,000 circulars explaining provisions of the ordinance providing for the separation of garbage.

Boy Scouts in Hamilton, Ohio, started out on an inspection tour of the city, visiting yards of the homes in the interest of the clean-up and paint-up campaign. Pictures of yards in bad condition or full of rubbish will be taken by the scouts.
